On this Day – 1912 The eruption of Novarupta in Alaska begins, the largest volcanic eruption of the 20th century

1944 Operation Overlord: D-Day begins as the 156,000-strong Allied Expeditionary Force lands in Normandy, France, during World War II

Dear parents, carers and families,

Welcome back, I hope you all had a wonderful half term break and managed to enjoy some celebrations over the bank holiday. This is the start of the final half term of the academic year and is set to be a busy one. The children will be completing their final theme of the year and wrapping up all their current year's learning. During the term there will be lots of different events taking place including sports day, reports going out, the children will get to meet their new teachers, the summer fete and many more. For dates of upcoming events please see the date section below, they will be added on gradually.

We ended last term on a high, the children looked great in their red, white and blue clothes. It was a lovely day, with the children learning about the Jubilee and completing various activities. The children also enjoyed their picnic lunches together and we are hoping to have another picnic lunch at some point this term.

As we are starting a new half term, curriculum maps for each class will be published this week. They will be sent by email at the end of the week and be uploaded onto the website. These inform you of the learning taking place in your child's class, for the half term. The page is broken into sections for each subject and tells you the focus for each area of learning this term. This can aid conversations with the children about their learning, particularly when they are not forthcoming.

Next week the book fair will be at school, organised by SOCs. It will be in the purple hall from 3.15pm from Monday 13th June until Wednesday 15th June. You will be able to come in and visit it through the main entrance once the majority of Years 5 and 6 have been dismissed. On Friday the 1st July the summer fete is taking place straight after school. SOCs would really appreciate any volunteers to help run some of the stalls, if you can volunteer please give your name to Mrs Searle in the office.

Attendance for the last week was dipped, however we know things happen in the last week of term. We hope that it will go back to how it had been the last weeks of the last term. Our punctuality is mixed, some classes have very few pupils arriving late, whilst other classes have a high number across the week.

With best wishes for the week ahead,
Kate Yeoman.
