

CHESTERTON NEWSLETTER

15th July 2019

Dear parents/ carers,

I am delighted to inform you that we are able to go ahead with induction this week as we have finally been able to appoint a teacher for our final vacancy. The teacher's name is Chloe Bowers and we look forward to her officially starting in September, although she will be here for the induction sessions. Due to the lateness in the term and the many other activities planned, transition will take place from 9-10am on Tuesday morning and Thursday morning with the children going straight to their class with their new teacher from their old class. As you will see from the list below, a few of the classes will be continuing with their current teacher, so the children will just be in their new room for that time. Thank you all so much for your patience and understanding but I wanted to ensure we appointed the correct person for the role.

Whilst I was watching Wimbledon on Saturday and then trying to juggle Wimbledon, the cricket and the Grand Prix yesterday, I was thinking of our Sports Day this Friday and was wondering if it would provide the same level of tension, excitement, thrills etc. I actually hope it will just be a really good, enjoyable occasion for all involved. 😊

I hope you have a great week. 😊
