

PROJECT TEAM OF THE CHILDREN'S PROJECT RUKUNGIRI - UGANDA

Evas

Project Manager
Manages the project, monthly funds request, qualified Occupational Therapist, driver, fieldworker, runs Life Skills clinics in Kanungu and Rukungiri districts.

Warren

Manages the chilli programme, driver (ambulance, chilli-collecting truck) regularly drives up to Kampala and around SW region, chilli district is Rukungiri North, often acts as translator and negotiator

David

Trained in sign language, liaison to deaf unit and for education, teaches families sign language, chilli fieldworker of Kanungu district.

The team stays and works together for:
- surgical camp week at Kisiizi Hospital (4 to 6 times a year);
- annual survey of disabled children in the 4 districts.

Nelson

Responsible for office stores, accounts and statistics for chilli farmers and disabled children.

Zaire (John)

Chilli fieldworker of Rukungiri South, registers children attending clinics. He was named Ekicongoro (grasshopper) by schoolfriends and then Congo, then Zaire, which stuck.

Jones

Manages clubfoot programme, also trained physiotherapist and ophthalmologist (at assistant levels), makes assessments and referrals for children they find with physical disability.

Generous

Secretary, helps all visitors (mums, etc.) especially when the rest of the team are out in the villages, assistant for clubfoot treatment.

Chilli Children Trust supports this dedicated team to continue helping families in their home region, who are in need.
www.chillichildren.org.uk