Last week year two travelled to central

London because we wanted to explore London. First we got the packed bus to Canary Wharf. Next we caught the Merseylink Uberboat. I am most tired a sleep. Then we saw the big London eye. After that we saw walked to pretty Trafalgar Square. Finally we went to Kasi

St James Park to have lunch.
The trip was really sunny because part was lunch. I would recommend this trip if you like to walk.
