

English:

- Clockwork by Phillip Pullman
- Write a narrative that builds suspense and atmosphere
- Instructions - How to make potato wedges

Science – Circulation and Health

- To summarise the key structures and purpose of the circulatory system.
- To identify the key roles of blood.
- To investigate the relationship between exercise and heart rate.

Computing: Introduction to Variables

- What are variables?
- Variables in programming
- Improving a game
- Designing a game
- Design to code
- Improving and sharing

PSHCE – Healthy Me

- Responsibility
- Drugs
- Exploitation
- Gangs
- Emotional and mental health
- Managing stress and pressure

Where in the world?

R.E – What do religions say when life gets hard?

- Compare and contrast different religions' beliefs in the afterlife.

Maths:

- Revision of key learning to date, including four operations, fractions, area, perimeter and volume, four quadrant coordinates and geometry.

Music: Singing

- Learning and practising songs for our end of year production of Spongebob Squarepants: The Musical!

Geography - The Mediterranean

- Map work
- What's Special About the Mediterranean?
- Is Europe a Proper Continent?
- Bologna
- Everyday Life in Bologna

Art & D.T:

- Designing and creating Automaton
- Food - Cooking Potato Wedges

P.E:

- Gymnastics
- Netball