

	Read	Watch	Visit
Year 7	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The Dirty Secret of Britain's Modern slavery – The Day – an article about modern slavery and exploitation of workers in the poorest and most vulnerable societies: https://theday.co.uk/stories/the-dirty-secret-of-britain-s-modern-slavery • World Without Fish by Mark Kurlansky – this book takes a look at how our current fishing and eating habits are likely to mean there will be no fish in our oceans in as little as 50 years 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Inside the factory - BBC Iplayer – a look at what life is like in a factory and how factories produce so much of our everyday items: https://www.bbc.co.uk/iplayer/episode/m000c651/inside-the-factory-series-5-xmas-party-food • Youtube: Will the ocean ever run out of fish? - Ayana Elizabeth Johnson and Jennifer Jacquet: https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=WNdR808jMSA 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Quarry Bank Mill – to look at how jobs have changed over the last 200 years and how children fit into this change • Chester Zoo – to explore the impacts of deforestation and the consequences on animals
Year 8	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • A Long Walk to Water by Linda Sue Park – a novel about children in Sudan, examining war, society and survival in a developing country • Chasing Chaos: My Decade in and Out of Humanitarian Aid by Jessica Alexander – a memoir about delivering humanitarian aid in developing countries 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Girl Rising: Changing the World One Girl at a Time - Stories of nine girls from developing countries show them overcoming great obstacles to obtain an education and change their fates. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • People's History Museum – looking at the impacts of development over time • Manchester Art Gallery – to look at many paintings from colonial times and how the British Empire left its legacy on the world. • International Slavery Museum, Liverpool – a look at colonial slavery in Britain as well as other examples of slavery, which caused serious undevelopment in Africa
Year 9	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • There Is No Planet B: A Handbook for the Make or Break Years by Mike Berners-Lee – a book looking at the current global crisis and its impacts • Letters to the Earth: Writing to a Planet in 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Chasing Coral – a docu-film on Netflix looking at the current state of our oceans and their coral reefs • An Inconvenient Truth/An Inconvenient Sequel: Truth to Power – the film that 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The Eden Project – if you can go further afield, this place looks at the importance of climate and protecting our environments • Incredible Edible, Levenshulme – a local example of permaculture and how

	Crisis by Jackie Morris – a look at the history of our earth and our impact upon it <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • No One Is Too Small to Make a Difference by Greta Thunberg – a book on climate change and the power of standing for what you believe in 	brought climate science and climate change, into the minds of everyday people ten years ago. Its sequel shows that we still have much to act upon if climate change is to be reversed.	we can reduce our impact on global warming: https://www.incredibleedible.org.uk/find-a-group/levenshulme/
Year 10	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Trash by Andy Mulligan – a book that follows the lives of three slum children. This links to the work we do about childhoods in different countries • The Guardian - Global development podcast: what's the key to good urban planning? WEB LINK a look at the current state of Global Development 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Megacities – Andrew Marr – a look at the challenges and solutions of our worlds Megacities. Watch some clips here: https://www.bbc.co.uk/programmes/b011rzm5 • Planet Earth 2 – Episode 6 - Cities – a look at the issues that urban life creates in our natural world: https://www.bbc.co.uk/programmes/b0861m8b • Slumdog millionaire (15) – a film based on the lives of slum children. It looks at the challenges and issues that people face living in the poorest slum communities • Ted Ed - Urbanization and the future of cities - Vance Kite WEB LINK 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Ancoats – to look at the regeneration of the area and re-urbanisation in an area at the heart of Manchester's cotton industry • Salford Quays – to explore how a once, industrial area, has been regenerated into a vibrant retail and business space and an Economic Hub for Manchester
Year 11	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • No Logo by Naomi Klein – a book based on the impacts of Globalisation and consumerism in our time • The Gaia hypothesis by James Lovelock – a look into the natural systems of the planet 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Avatar – a film that will allow you to explore the issues of over exploitation of resources • Blood Diamond – a film looking at the consequences of mining for conflict diamonds 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Sale Water Park – to look at urban regeneration and management of water in the locality • Fallowfield Loop in Levenshulme – to check out 'Incredible Edibles', a local example of permaculture:

versus the current uses of our world

- Wall-E – a film showing the ultimate affect that over-exploitation of resources and poor waste management can have on our environments

<https://www.incredibleedible.org.uk/find-a-group/levenshulme/>