

	Read	Watch	Visit
Year 7	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> The Secret Diary of John Drawbridge: Medieval Knight in Training by Philip Ardagh Norman the Norman from Normandy by Philip Ardagh These books should give you an insight into life in the Middle Ages. They will really help you to visualise what life was like during this time.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> BBC TEACH: The Battle of Hastings: https://www.bbc.co.uk/teach/class-clips-video/the-battle-of-hastings/zrnd7nb These videos should give you an idea about William the Conqueror being a fearsome fighter with a superior army	York: Jorvik Centre and Clifford's tower in York. Clifford's tower is an example of a motte and bailey castle. It sits on top of a large motte and is a brilliant surviving remnant from Norman England. York's city walls can also help you to imagine what life was like inside an old English town. The Jorvik centre provides you with an understanding of the Vikings, who were ruling in England before the Norman Conquest, and remained a threat to England for many years.
Year 8	The Frightful First World War (Horrible Histories) Blitzed Britz (Horrible Histories) A unique insight into some of the experiences and stories from both world wars with no gory detail left out! Wilfred Owen's War poems – A fantastic first-hand account of a soldier's experiences on the front line of the first world war. These include poems such as 'Dulce et decorum est' and 'Anthem for Doomed Youth'.	Suffragette: The Time is Now (12 certificate) – A telling of some of the stories of the Suffragette movement in England and introducing some of the leaders and more well-known campaigners. Martin Luther King 'I have a dream' speech – The infamous speech from the March on Washington delivered to 1,000s that spoke of Martin Luther King's vision for America. A source which promises a better USA to come but alludes to the problems of the one in which they live: https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=vP4iY1TtS3s	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> People's History Museum (Both Main Exhibition Spaces) In the first main space is an area called voters, this covers the political movements of the 20th Century including the rise in Fascism and the Suffragette movement. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Imperial War Museum (Main Exhibition Space, Big Picture Show, Mixing it; The Changing Face of Wartime Britain) Here you can walk through the wars of the 20th Century as well as seeing how the war changed the make-up of Britain.
Year 9	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Edexcel GCSE History Medicine in Britain Monstrous Regiment by Terry Pratchett Animal Farm by George Orwell These books are available to borrow from the school library. They allow you to study themes of medicine through time and develop their understanding of History at GCSE.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> The Victorian Slum (BBC 2016) Blackadder (BBC) Horrible Histories (BBC) BBC Teach (YouTube) Getting Better: 200 Years of Medicine (YouTube) Pain, Pus and Poison: The Search for Modern Medicines (BBC) These may be available on popular streaming services and allow you to access representations of History. They will allow you to understand how life has changed throughout Britain and how medicine has changed over	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Museum of Science and Industry Museum of Medicine and Health (University of Manchester) To bring history to life outside of the classroom, these free and popular attractions contrast local History with world History. The exhibits will contextualise social life that we have studied in lessons. time, enabling you to draw upon these themes in their lessons.

Year 10	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The Man in the High Castle by Philip K. Dick • The Butter Battle Book by Dr Seuss • Barefoot Gen: A Cartoon Story of Hiroshima Nakazawa Keiji (Manga, part of a series) These books are available in the library, central library and to buy from Amazon. You will be able to link their knowledge from the Cold War and Nazi Germany to the themes explored in the book.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • World War II in Colour (Netflix) A fantastic exploration of the Second World War, which shows how Hitler used his army raised in his dictatorship to try and achieve Lebensraum. This 10-part series is a must for any History fan! • Deutschland '83 (All 4) This show comes with a BBFC rating of 15, as it has depictions of violence and nudity. However, it is a fantastic examination of life in Eastern Berlin during the Cold War. This first series of this show examines life as a teenager under the USSR. • Chuck Norris Vs Communism (Netflix) You can truly understand the theme of communism and how it is still perceived in the world today. This will give them the background knowledge needed to understand the international relationship of the Cold War. Whilst the documentary does not come with an official BBFC rating, parental guidance is suggested. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Imperial War Museum The ongoing 20th Century exhibition shows artefacts from Hitler's Germany and throughout Manchester's experience in the Second World War. This links to our GCSE delivery of Weimar and Nazi Germany and the Cold War.
Year 11	The Norman Conquest by Marc Morris Chapters from this book have already been used to enrich learning in lessons. It will build background knowledge and is brilliant academic reading for those of you aiming to study classics, ancient history or history at college.		Peveril Castle, Castleton (The Normans) This fantastic example of a landscape represents what Britain would have looked like in 1066 and will help you to visualise what they are learning in class. York: Jorvik Centre and Clifford's tower in York. Cliffords tower is an example of a motte and bailey castle. It sits on top of a large motte and is a brilliant surviving remnant from Norman England. York's city walls can also help you to imagine what life was like inside an old English town. The Jorvik centre provides students with an understanding of the Vikings, who were ruling in England before the Norman Conquest, and remained a threat to England for many years

