

	Read	Watch	Visit
Year 9	Read The Day, an online News site. There is a dedicated Media section. This will enable you to keep up to date with developments that effect Media Studies https://theday.co.uk/ We have a CHS Media Department Twitter page which is following a number of reporters, politicians and news platforms. @chs_studies Become familiar with the history of Independent Music: https://www.theguardian.com/music/series/a-history-of-indie-music		You can visit a variety of organisations in Media City Salford. Events change all the time, it is worth checking their webpage regularly. This will give you a deeper understanding of how these media platforms work. http://www.mediacityuk.co.uk/news-and-events/ Visit The British Music Experience in Liverpool to examine the impact and development of indie music http://www.britishmusicexperience.com/
Year 10	We have a CHS Media Department Twitter page which is following a number of reporters, politicians and news platforms. @chs_studies Read The Day, an online News site. There is a dedicated Media section. This will enable you to keep up to date with developments that effect Media Studies. https://theday.co.uk/	Watch any of the Tomb Raider films. Become familiar with the characters in order to enhance your understanding of the franchise and its branding. Keeping up with The Kardashians. Become familiar with the format and the characters (E! Entertainment) so you can examine how the branding and franchise have developed. Build your knowledge of the video game industry by watching Video game invasion: the history of a global obsession https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=O4dPSOncwVQ	You can visit a variety of organisations in Media City Salford. Events change all the time, it is worth checking their webpage regularly. http://www.mediacityuk.co.uk/news-and-events/ Visit The Museum of Gaming in Preston to build your knowledge of video games and gaming culture: http://www.museumofgaming.org.uk/

Year 11	We have a CHS Media Department Twitter page which is following a number of reporters, politicians and news platforms. @chs_studies You can read The Day, an online News site. There is a dedicated Media section. This will enable students to keep up to date with developments that effect Media Studies. https://theday.co.uk/	This You Tube channel covers the Close Study Products, and will give you another teacher's perspective to help build your own knowledge and opinions: https://www.youtube.com/results?search_query=Doctor+Octobear	You can visit a variety of organisations in Media City Salford. Events change all the time, it is worth checking their webpage regularly. http://www.mediacityuk.co.uk/news-and-events/ You can visit the BBC in Media City, and take a tour around a working television and radio studios. This will give you a deeper understanding of how these media platforms work. https://www.bbc.co.uk/showsandtours/
----------------	---	---	---