CHORLTON HIGH SCHOOL: CURRICULUM

RESTORE Curriculum: This curriculum has been developed to support all the students as they return to school after lockdown. Students who continued to follow work assigned will be offered the opportunities to explore their knowledge through extension tasks and practical projects. Students who are not up to date with their work, will be taught in class, and expected to catch up at home. All lessons will be planned to respond quickly to changes in school situation. Students will work in MS Class Notebook and all lessons power points will be saved in a file accessible by students.

Students will continue to work on MS Teams – using a Media Studies adapted Class Notebook to work on in class; developing routines started during Lock-down; and adaptable for distance learning if necessary. Students are empowered to develop their ability to work independently, with research tasks and group work. Work is shared with class, developing a sense of togetherness, and all good work is recognised and commended by teacher and peers. The practical tasks are enjoyable and collaborative.
