

Respect

	Read	Watch	Visit
Year 8	Tigers eyes by Judy Bloom  This is a fiction novel about bereavement that will help you explore the issues and experiences of others.	Angus, Thongs and Perfect Snogging  This will enable you to explore through fiction the teen relationships in modern Britain	Volunteer with an adult at a local foodbank such as Cornerstone
Year 9	Mercy by Jodi Picoult  This explores medical ethics, which links directly to what we are exploring in lessons.	The films My Sister's Keeper and Me Before You both deal with the complexities and legal issues surrounding savour siblings and assisted suicide	<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Museum of Science and industry</li></ul> Explore how science has developed over time,
Year 10	Smack by Melvin Burgess  This novel will enable you to consider the implications of drug use on the individual and in society though a fictional story		Visit the Centrepoint website and read the stories of homeless people. Consider the role addiction has played in some of the stories and consider what we can do as a community to help: https://centrepoint.org.uk/youth-homelessness/real-stories/