REALLY Useful Websites

French

French TV channel websites:

<http://tvfrancelive.com>

For news, browse for videos at:

Euronews

Euronews is a European TV channel on which you can watch programs about news, culture, technology and many other interesting topics.

The language is pretty formal, but each video comes with a transcript you can download, which makes Euronews one of the very best French TV channels to improve your French.

France24

This a TV channel specifically created for people living outside of France. It's mission is to cover world news from a French perspective.

It's also one of the rare TV channels on this list to be available in several languages (French, English, Arabic).

French Radio on-line

France Inter

If fast conversation and a mix of culture and news is what you're looking for, France Inter is the French radio station for you.

Are you a bookworm? Listen to France Inter on Saturdays to hear authors and book shop owners from Swiss, Belgium, Canada and France discuss the latest books from their country in La Librairie Francophone.

France Culture

Slower-paced than France Inter, France Culture is a great way to improve your French listening skills and prepare for your next passionate debate in French.

Don't think slower-paced means easier to understand, though!

With topics ranging from news and economy to philosophy, music, and art, France Culture requires an advanced vocabulary and clearly isn't for beginners.

RTL

Mostly known for its live comedy shows like Les Grosses Têtes (a daily show dedicated to news and culture), RTL (formerly Radio Luxembourg) is also the perfect general-interest radio to catch up with news and hear the latest hits from France and abroad.
