

ONCE A PHILOSOPHER, ALWAYS A PHILOSOPHER!

You are what you believe Year 11!!! Like it or not you have been and always will be surrounded and influenced by beliefs that are not your own! Beliefs can inspire you, sadden you, give you pleasure, hurt you and others as well as providing comfort. One things for sure though, you all have beliefs! You have them right now!

But which ones?

You've just been handed a large number of weeks to sit, read, reflect, ponder, write about if you want to, and chat with others about your beliefs, hopes and goals. It's INCREDIBLY RARE to get this amount of 'time to think' in life. USE IT WISELY!

Here are some ideas and resources to help you spend some time thinking about your beliefs and the beliefs of other people. We hope they inspire you in your next steps in life

Reading Revolution

Ethics, Philosophy and Religion are all about ideas and beliefs. Many of these ideas have changed the world in massive ways over the centuries, and so they often provide the inspiration behind some great books.

Check out these books that cover so much about what we have taught you in Religious Studies at CHS. These are books for life – for anyone who dares to examine what it means to be a human in 2020!

Many are available on Borrowbox
