If you have made a comment in the 'Disagree' or 'Strongly Disagree' column would you please write your reason below.

George struggles to apply what he has learnt in class to his homework. He need lots of intervention from myself. (Janet Buck)

I disagree that homework is appropriate, I feel it's hard and they can't complete the work effectively because they have no PC. (Billie Wilson)

I have raised concerns that are not being dealt with (anonymous0

I saw that my daughter Sara rarely does homework at home. She always says that she did it at break time. It means less homework, please give Sara more homework. (Asadullah Iqbal)

I feel that the school does not raise concerns with me, what concerns I have I don't think are dealt with properly.

I have heard that some pupils were calling my daughter names and making jones and laugh and make fun at her, she has not made any friendships. (Mr Mohammed re Hanary)

Kashif complains a lot when he comes home. When he wants to talk about problems he is having in class the teacher doesn't listen to him.

Frankie really enjoy this school (Tracey l'Anson).

Please add any additional comments

Good strong school, excellent teachers. (N. Riley)

My child Callum is happy at this school. (Mrs Williams)

Both my children seem to enjoy school as much as any child could. (Donna Bromley)

This is the first year of my child attending this school and she loves it.

George has settled well into school life and school has dealt with any concerns or issues quickly and effectively. (Janet Buck)

The school is proving positive at the moment but a bit early to know if I will be ticking strongly agree at the next parent meeting (E Molokwu)

Hanary is new in school, I think she needs support especially for daily/weekly homeworks and other tasks.

Thank you for everything. (Mr Mohammed)

Happy with her progress from last year. (Mr Kenyon)
