

Coffee Afternoon SEND and Pastoral Support

Friday 17th January 2025

2:00pm – 4:00pm at Churchtown Primary School

In Sefton, we understand there are many opportunities to have your questions answered on how best to support your child at home and with the transition to school. In order to make these services as accessible as possible, we have organised a coffee afternoon at school where the professionals below will be available to talk to. In addition, there will be coffee, tea and biscuits!

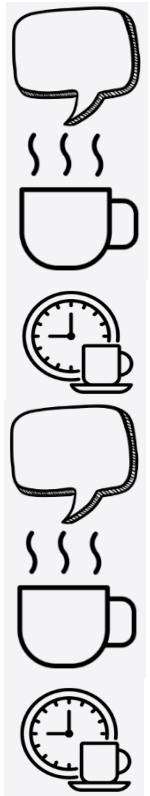

Some of the professionals attending (with further to confirm response!):

Ez Mills – Sefton Principal Educational Psychologist
Kayleigh Hesketh – Sefton SEND Primary Inclusion Consultant
Gill Francis – Sefton SEND Early Years Inclusion Consultant
Katie Morse – Sefton Mental Health Support Team
Eleanor Webb/Izzy Rosenblatt – KIDS/SENDIAS Parent Advisor
Heather Fowler – Safeguarding Lead for Endeavour Learning Trust
Advanced Solutions – ADHD and Autism Support
Laura O’Toole – School Nurse

In addition:

Jinnie Payne - Headteacher
Christie Tudor – Assistant Headteacher for SEND/Inclusion (SENDCo/DSL)
Lisa Sutton – Assistant SENDCo
Faith Simms – Education, Safeguarding and Wellbeing Officer
Christopher Bateman - Pastoral Support
Heather Welsh – Attendance and Pastoral Support

In addition, other members of staff and the Senior Leadership Team will be available.

In order to ensure the event runs smoothly, if you would like to attend please could you sign up on the link below or the QR code to the right:
