IALT: analyse fiction writing.

1st - SPAG

2. Insert a comma in the correct place in the sentence below.

I went to the zoo and saw a giraffe an elephant and three lions.

2nd - edit these sentences:

Add in the contractions:

i can not got there said the young girl

what are you doing do you not know about the magic spell

i will not say it again said billys mum

Challenge:

What do you use for contractions and for possession like "billys mum"?

How are they different and the same?

In English, we are going to be exploring the book 'Demon Dentist' by David Williams.

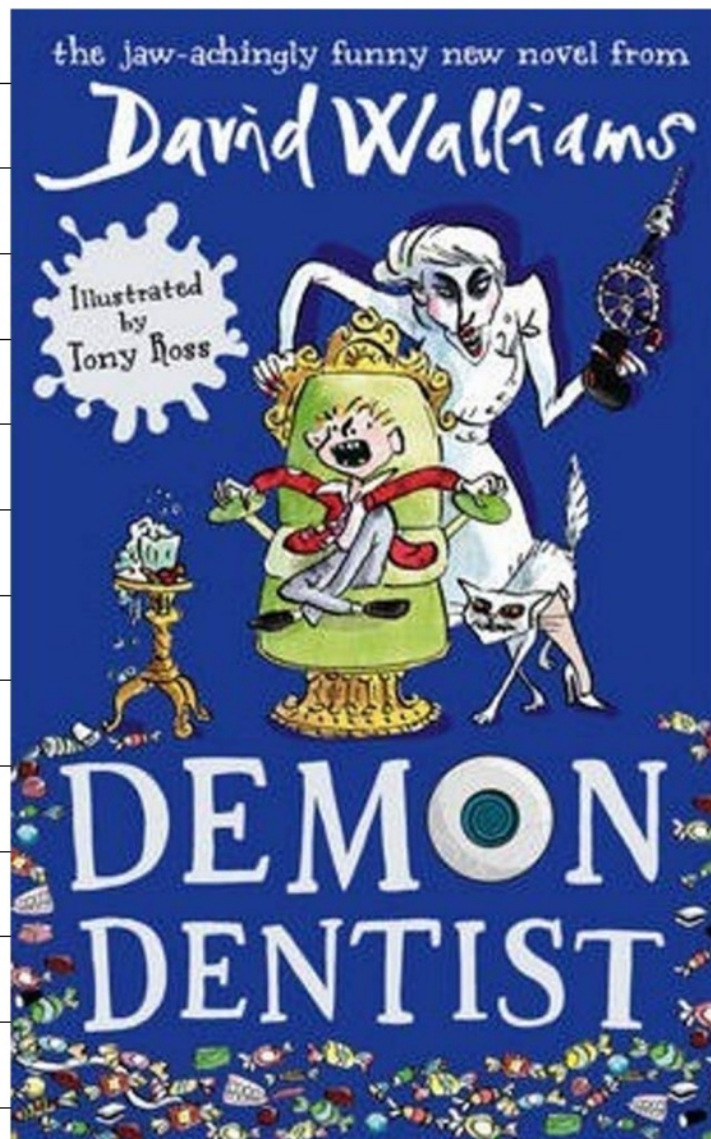

What do you think this book is going to be about? Do the pictures and name of book give you any clues?

Do you think it is a fiction or non-fiction book? How do you know?

Have you read any other books like this?

Do you think you are going to like it?
Why/ why not?

What writing features are being used?

What writing features can you spot in the text?

Demon Dentist

The dentist had gripped so hard he had crushed the tooth. It exploded into thousands of tiny fragments inside Alfie's mouth.

With the ordeal finally over, Mr Erstwhile and all his helpers were lying in a tangled heap on the surgery floor.

A Simple Case of Toothache

"Well done, everyone!" he announced, as his assistant Miss Prig helped him to his feet. "Oh, that tooth was a stubborn little blighter!"

Just then Alfie realised something. He still had toothache.

The dentist had taken out the wrong tooth!

Why do authors use these features in fiction writing? What effect does it have on the reader?

Task: Can you give me some examples of an ENP and " " in your book? These can be examples taken from the book, ones you've created yourself or a mixture of both.

For example:

Speech:

"Of course, Mr Erstwhile will be sadly missed," concluded Miss Root.

ENP:

The rotting, ugly mouthful of teeth were on display.

ENP

Presentation:

The rotting, ugly mouthful of
