Miss Edwards' WAGOLL:

Darkness had come to town... The days were filled with a feeling of unease. Everyone dreaded the day they become sick, because they would have to face the Deadly Doctor at the local hospital. In this town, everyone was extra careful: no bicycles, no cars, no scooters or anything that might cause an accident to happen. Nothing would be worse than going to visit the Deadly Doctor. He was a creepy, wrinkly old man in an abandoned doctor's surgery. He wore blinding blue overalls with gloves that shone brighter than the sun.
