

World Book Day

Book Cover

Design a front cover for a book. Include key features such as the title, author and illustrator. How will you make your book enticing, so that everyone wants to read it?

Act out a Scene

Act out a scene from your favorite book. You can use costumes and props to bring your drama to life. Don't forget to record your performance so that we can share it!

Write a Poem

Can you write a poem about your favorite food? Your poem could include rhyme and /or alliteration . When you have finished you could present your work ready for publishing.

Draw a Scene

Can you draw a scene from favorite story? Use your imagination to make an authors words come to life.

Extreme Reading

Take pictures of yourself reading in extreme and whacky places. Think outside the box!

Magic Potion

Write a recipe for your very own magic potion. Describe what your potion is for, list the ingredients and share instructions on how to make it.

Supervillain

Create a new supervillain. Start by thinking about supervillains in stories you know Then come up with your own villain including WOW words to describe them. Finally draw your character!

Book Trailer

Can you promote a book that you think is fantastic? Make a poster, PowerPoint or trailer to advertise it. Think about how you can leave your audience wanting more!

Guess the Book

Write or draw clues for others to guess the title of a book. Here is an example:
I have a looking glass, a rabbit and a hole. What story am I?
