

Spring 1

Arthur and the Golden Rope

Week 1

Tues: links

Weds: character profile

Thurs: Explore objectives

Fri: Homework

Wednesday

IALT: profile a character

PERFECTLY PUNCTUATE:

deep in the cave a noise crept forwards

born in iceland

arthur was always

going to be a bit

different

2. Tick two boxes to show the nouns in the sentence below.

There's a wonky, metal chair in the back garden.

↑
a

↑
b

↑
c

↑
d

1 mark

CHALLENGE: Give an example of a word that can be both an adjective and a noun.

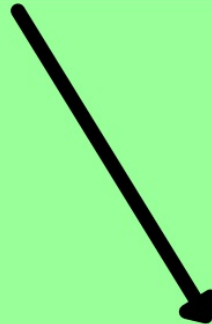

I can start to describe characters in the book.

I can use the words external and internal.

I can understand the vocab chosen by the author.

I can break down the characters profile.

Vocabulary Pyramid

artefacts

Vikings

globe conquer

rare

adventure

Read up to page 15.

What have we learnt about the main character?
Where is this story set?

But before all that, there was the first adventure a Brownstone ever had. This is the tale of Arthur, the unlikeliest of heroes.

"unlikeliest of heroes"
What does this mean?

Why is he an unlikely hero?

What could the author be telling us about him?

Internal

External

What do these words mean?

Heroes are usually brave and active - Arthur likes listening to quiet stories.

Heroes are usually big and strong - Arthur is young and small.

TASK: look at the external and internal Arthur

Key words

Explain ideas

External Traits

Make links

Internal Traits

What is he wearing?

What does he have
with him?

What does he like to do?

How does he act?

artefacts

globe

rare

Brain Bubble:

External traits are.....

Internal traits are.....

Respond to feedback and past work.