Dear Prospective Applicant

Thank you for your interest in applying for this post. This is an exciting opportunity to join our amazing school community where we live our ethos of 'Always a little further' for those in our care.

The Clarendon Federation serves a vibrant and diverse community, proudly supporting both military and civilian families. Our federation of Infant and Junior schools work closely together to ensure that every child feels valued, supported, and able to thrive, whatever their background or starting point. We are deeply committed to an inclusive ethos, where the needs of all pupils are recognised and met through teamwork, care, and high-quality teaching and learning.

As a member of our staff team, you would be joining a group of dedicated professionals who are passionate about making a difference. Collaboration is at the heart of our practice – we work together to share expertise, celebrate success, and support one another in achieving the very best for our children.

We are looking for enthusiastic, nurturing, and caring practitioners who are committed to helping children succeed with high expectations.

If you are ready for an exciting challenge and enjoy working as a team player, within a trauma informed child focused school, then please apply to join us. Visits are welcomed but not compulsory!

The Clarendon Federation is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and young people and we expect all staff and volunteers to share this commitment.

The successful applicants will be subject to enhanced DBS checks. References will be sought on shortlisted candidates before interview and online checks will be made.

Thank you for your interest in the Clarendon Federation – we look forward to welcoming applicants who share our values and our commitment to inclusive, high-quality education for all.

I look forward to receiving your application.

Yours sincerely

Lisa Ashford-Smith
