

Year 6 - RE - Summer 1 - BUDDHISM: How does the Triple Refuge help Buddhists in their journey through life?

Prior Learning

Following the Buddha's teachings (the eightfold path) allows every human to achieve enlightenment and end suffering.

Sticky Knowledge:

The triple refuge support Buddhists on their journey to enlightenment

Buddhists believe:

- Buddha is the guide. They revere but do not worship Buddha; they take 'refuge' in him as their guide towards enlightenment.
- Dharma is the path (the teaching). It shows Buddhists the way to travel to reach enlightenment. It is a safe, well laid path which they can follow for themselves.
- Dharma includes rules for right living and teaching on how to avoid bad actions.
- Sangha are the travelling companions, the Buddhist community.
- The Five precepts help you to live ethically and morally good lives.

The Triple Gem

What should we be able to do?

Show how Buddhists express their belief that the Buddha is a refuge and guide.

Explain how the Buddha's teachings (dharma) help Buddhists journey along the path.

Use the right religious words to describe the practices and experiences of Buddhists belonging to the Sangha, both lay and monastic.

Explain how members of the Sangha support each other at the festival of Wesak.

What words should we understand and be able to use?

Buddha	Buddha is a title given to Siddhatta Gotama; it means 'enlightened' or 'awakened' one.	Sangha	Sangha means 'friendly or harmonious community'. It may be lay or monastic.
Dharma	Is the path to enlightenment made of the Buddha's teachings.	Triple Gem	Gold symbolises Buddha and his wisdom, Blue symbolises the Dharma (Buddha's teaching) and Red symbolises the Sangha (Buddhist community).
Five Moral Precepts	a commitment to try leaving behind certain behaviours, and take on others as a way of developing RIGHT ACTION or conduct which will advance them spiritually along Buddha's Eightfold Path to enlightenment.	Wesak	Wesak celebrates the Buddha's birthday and, for some Buddhists, also marks his enlightenment and death. It is also called Buddha Day.

