Drumming Homework

The drum homework this week is to be working on the song 'We Will Rock You' by Queen.

It's a very simple song but the challenge is being able to play it while also keeping it in time.

The basics of the song are: 2 hits on the floor Tom and then one hit on the snare and then doing this over and over again.

The next part is the guitar solo. In the original song the drum pattern does not change but we are going to change the drum Pattern to an 08th note groove when the guitar comes into the song.
