Years 3&4 100 PAGE CHALLENGE!

A black and white line drawing of a girl with long hair, wearing a hooded sweatshirt, sitting and reading a book. She has a thoughtful expression on her face.

The school librarians are challenging you to read a story with at least 100 pages. (Adults can help if you want). Then you need to draw pictures to retell the story, you can add words if you choose.

Please bring your entries back to school in the week after half term. The librarians will collect from your classes.

Each entry to a reading challenge this year will earn you a chance to win great prizes.
