

A decorative border of colorful books surrounds the text. The books are in various colors: pink, green, orange, purple, blue, red, yellow, and magenta. They are arranged in a grid-like pattern, with some books open and some closed.

FS, Y1 & Y2 100 WORD CHALLENGE!

A black and white line drawing of a young girl with long hair, wearing a hooded sweatshirt, sitting and reading a book.

The school librarians are challenging you to read a story with at least 100 words. (Adults can help if you want). Then you need to draw pictures to retell the story, you can add words if you choose.

Please bring your entries back to school in the week after half term. The librarians will collect from your classes.

A color illustration of an older man with white hair and glasses, wearing a light blue shirt, sitting on the floor and reading a book to a young girl with dark hair, wearing a red shirt with a heart on it.

Each entry to a reading challenge this year will earn you a chance to win great prizes.
