

Oracy

- Speaking in sentences
- Waiting for a turn
- Listening and responding appropriately
- To ask simple questions relevant to the learning
- Start to answer what, where, when, how and why questions.
 - Answers that match what has been asked; relevant, appropriate

PSED

- Thinking about our own personal skills and qualities.
- Discussing and describing feelings.
- Looking at negotiating and solving problems without an adult.
- Asking questions of others and waiting for my turn to respond.
- Continuing to think about Coleshill Heath values
#kindness #honesty #courage #confidence

Values Question:

When have you been brave?

Mathematics

Number

- see and check by counting.
- Practical addition with objects to 10.
- Practical subtraction with objects to 10.
- Counts objects in a irregular arrangement.
- Counts objects that cannot be moved.

Shape, Space and Measure

- Uses comparative language to discuss height and length.
- Name 2D and 3D shapes.
- Explore the symmetry of shapes.

Communication & Language

- Talk For Writing (T4W) – Chicken Licken.
- We will use talk to discuss our thinking and ideas.

Literacy- Writing

- Writing labels and sentences.
- Segment and write CVC words.

Literacy- Reading

- Discussing good and bad characters.
- Discuss what stories we do and do not like.
- Noticing and discussing what happens at the start, middle and the end of stories.

RECEPTION – SPRING 1

CHICKEN LICKEN

Understanding of the World

- Using a computer to explore games/to control something.
- Talk about how things happen and how things work.
- Learning about people who help us.
- Recognise the celebration of Chinese New Year.
- Forest School

Physical Development

- Outdoor play activities.
- Fine motor activities (pencil skills, Dough Disco, funky fingers)
- Moving into the response of music.

Expressive Arts & Design

- Mixing colours for a purpose.
- Tapping out a rhythm and play instruments purposefully.
- Drawing settings and characters.
- Role-play activities in our home corner and in groups.
- Exploring feelings in drama and music.