

Life cycle of a chicken

Parts of a chick

What do farmers do?

There are several kinds of farmers ranging from farmers who raise animals to farmers who grow crops.

A farmer's main goal is to produce a good crop and healthy animals in order to make to feed people.

Farmers are responsible for all crops and animals that are needed for us to survive.

What? (Key vocabulary)

Piglet

A baby pig.

Calf

A baby cow.

Chick

A baby chicken.

Duckling

A baby duck.

Kid

A baby goat.

What? (Key vocabulary)

Pigsty

Where pigs are kept.

Barn

Where larger farm animals are kept.

Coop

Where chickens are kept.

Udder

The part of a cow where farmers milk cows.

Field

Where food crops grow.

