How to Use These Resources in Daily Tasks

- Mind maps & flow charts: subheadings and colour to reinforce key points
- Flashcards: reinforce definitions, studies, sampling types, neuron types
- Essay Plans: scheduled every Friday or after advanced topic recap
- Written notes & tables: bridge AO1 details with AO3 evaluation, especially for complex topics like drug therapy and biopsychology

Integrate the appropriate link for each topic into your daily tasks—for example, when you draw a flow chart for combatting retrieval failure, refer to the Research Methods Mind Map from TES, or when crafting a burger paragraph on SLT, use the Tutor2u evaluation framework.
