

PUPIL PREMIUM STATEMENT 2018/19

Whole School Key Priorities for 2018/2019

Priority Area	Key Priority	SIP Priority	Cost Breakdown
Quality First Teaching	Develop a broad, enriched, skill based curriculum which will provide all of our child with skills, experiences and knowledge needed to attain well against national comparators.	Yes	£9,000
Quality First Teaching	Develop reading and writing opportunities and outcomes so they are highly skilled and able to use these skills to access the broad, enriched, skill based curriculum.	Yes	£4,000
Quality First Teaching	Develop strong oracy skills for all children so that children are able to articulate their thought processes and deepen their learning.	Yes	£5,000
Quality First Teaching	Continue to develop assessment systems and procedures to enable practitioners to identify accurately any learning needs and swiftly target children to secure rapid progress.	Yes	Proportion of AHT 2 Additional Teachers £140,989
SMSC	Embed the Convention of the Right of the Child and the Equalities Agenda across the school community to raise expectations on behaviour, aspirations and readiness for learning. Inspire the girls to aim high and the boys to engage and take responsibility for their own futures.	Yes	Teacher's salary – 6 days in total £1300
Parental Engagement	Increase learning at home and develop children as life-long learners by supporting parents to support their children	Yes	Learning Mentor salary £24,536
Safeguarding	Continue to ensure that the school is addressing safeguarding at all levels so that the school remains a safe and secure place. Develop education of children around keeping themselves safe so that their key priority is learning.	Yes	Senior Learning Mentor's salary £32,765
Emotional Wellbeing	Improving pupils' physical health and mental health outcomes so that they are able to achieve at school and beyond.	Yes	Learning Mentor salary £28,079

Pupil Premium Allocation for 2018/2019	186 pupils @ £1320	£245,520
Pupil Premium Potential Spending for 2018/2019		£245,669