'Grow in the Grace and Knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ' 2 Peter 3: 18

Summer term two has started with a busy week, great to see all the children have safely returned and ready for the weeks ahead.

Quidditch was great fun this week. All those in Slytherin (Green team) were the overall winners! A big shout out to the following:-

	Best Beater	Best Chaser	Best keeper	Best Snitch
Oak	Eadie	Charlie		Harper
Maple	Flynn	George		Mr Marston!
Willow	Jacob	Skye	Sophia	Mr Marston!
Sycamore	Alice	Archie	George	Mr Marston!

Despite the heat all the children (and some staff!) thoroughly enjoyed the sessions. Hope you managed to see some of the great photographs on Facebook from the day. Many thanks to the PTFA for organising the sale of the ice-creams too!

We are delighted to receive, once again, the Social Impact award, recognised for all the work we do in school and within the community. Thank you to Mrs Casterton for her work with the children in working towards this award.

Past pupils from our school have celebrated recent successes; they have joined the cheer squad at southlands and they entered their first competition in Manchester on Sunday. Congratulations to them all!

Also, a member of our school family went along to see his family's horse 'Coppull' race at this year's Royal Ascot. Here is Alfie meeting the jockey who rode Coppull. What a fantastic trip for him.

Staffing update

I wanted to let you know that Mrs Marston will be leaving on Friday 4th July in preparation for baby arriving. We wish Mrs Marston well and I will keep you up to date. In the meantime, Mr Marston and Mrs Bennett will be teaching Willow for the last few weeks of the summer term.

Early Birds FREE breakfast club

Following a successful start this term to the Early Adopters Free Breakfast club, offered to all children from 8.15am, I want to remind you that the breakfast club will continue throughout the remaining summer term. Please book online using 'School Money' system.

School Lunches

Please note that there will be a slight increase in line with Lancashire County Council increased costs for school lunches from £2.50 up to £2.75. This will take effect from Monday 9th June.
