Our Platinum Jubilee Celebrations

Rain definitely didn't bring the proceedings to a halt yesterday and the children and staff thoroughly enjoyed a jubilee party in the hall. Hopefully the photographs on Facebook and their recount of the day will encourage you to know how much fun they had. We all stood to sing the National Anthem which many children are now able to sign, we welcomed some familiar Royal faces! PSCO Julie joined us and helped to serve the children their party food and we shared the grace before enjoying a delicious lunch. Royal family trivia, quizzes and crown making part of the day too!

Children should all have received a beautiful book called 'Queen Elizabeth' - this has been gifted to all families across the country from the Department of Education and we have bought our children a leather bookmark as a souvenir of the platinum jubilee.

Our school quiet garden

With the generous donation of resources and time from a fantastic team 'Murphy Roots' from the Murphy Group, who have helped transform the quiet garden into a safe, stimulating space where groups of children will visit as part of their outdoor learning. Murphy Roots have provided an array of plants, trees and encouraged the children to plant wild flower gardens.

The gardening club have particularly welcomed the opportunity to participate in the project. Our sincere thanks are extended to Mr Riding, a parent from school, who has created the valuable link in developing this wonderful and much appreciated contact with Murphy Roots.

I would also like to offer our sincere thanks to Mr & Mrs Levene who offered the hire of a skip during the garden work. The company have declined any payment for this but asked that the cost of the hire is put in the year 6 leaver's pot. This is also very much appreciated.

Thanks, are also extended to the many families who have donated resources in response to the letter from the gardening club and staff requesting outdoor items. We now have an abundance of pallets, roof tiles, doors to be transformed into chalk boards, old railway sleepers and plant pots. Thank you for your amazing and much appreciated support.

End of term

It has been such a wonderful, busy half term with all the classes engaged in many activities linked to their topics, celebrating the Queen's Platinum Jubilee and of course the children in year 2 and 6 focused and giving their very best for the SATs tests- well done to you all.
