'Grow in the Grace and Knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ' 2 Peter 3: 18

A huge thankyou to Tommy in year 2, he has made many 'chocolate Santa on his sleigh', sold them to family and friends, donating a fantastic £109 towards school funds.

It's our much loved 'Switch On' Thursday evening doors opening at 5.30pm, hope you have your ticket! Refreshments will be served and raffle tickets will be sold.

Please contact the school office if you haven't got your ticket. The choir will be singing, our children who have instrumental lessons will be performing and each class will offer their own contribution to the evening.

Concluding with one of our favourite songs the children learn to sing and sign!

Creative Festival

Children from key stages 1 and 2 represented school at a Creative festival organised by the Chorley Schools Sports Partnership. The children thoroughly enjoyed the festival made up of dance, drama and song from the wonderful musical; The Lion King!

Supporting the Foodbank this Christmas.

School council are collecting items for Chorley Foodbank. The children spoke during whole school worship this week asking for donations to be sent in. Each class has a grub tub which we are asking children to collect any tins; packets; toiletries and Christmas foods which will help all those families struggling to enjoy a Christmas dinner. Please send items in by Friday 15th December.

Hopefully you will have received a letter for the upcoming events being organised by the PTFA.
