

Coppull St John's C.E. Primary School

5th July 2019

The children thoroughly enjoyed their 'Mountain Monkey' experience last week. It was wonderful to see so many children of all ages climb the wall with confidence and a have-a go, even some showing determination to reach the top.

A range of activities included Bushcraft skills - toasting the marsh mellow was a highlight! Plus orienteering, archery.

Sports day finally took place! The children thoroughly enjoyed all the races and thanks are expressed to the staff for ensuring the children remained hydrated with water and ice pops! Congratulations to Chisnall who were the winning team. Thank you also to all the family and friends that came along, participated and supported the children at both of these very successful events!

Coppull St John's Talent show

I am sure you will agree we have amazing, talented children here in our school. We were entertained throughout the evening by many acts which the children had choreographed themselves! Congratulations to the 2019 Talent show winners, The fabulous magician, Oscar, the terrific singing trio Fletcher, Elliot and Archie, the wonderful song, 'Tightrope' from duo Alice and Lily and beautiful singing from Millie.

PTFA

Our thanks are extended to the members of the PTFA once again for providing the refreshments during all the recent events that have taken place. If you would like to join the active and very committed team please come along to their next meeting on Monday 15th July at 6.30pm. They will be supporting the school disco on Thursday 18th July.

Sporting updates

A huge well done to our Year 5 and 6, who took part in the athletics competition last week. They were silver medal winners! Very well done to Teegan, Luke, Finley, Reuben, Tom, Ellis, Lily, Madison, Isabella and Declan

Library and reading books

Please can any outstanding library and reading books be returned to the school library by Wednesday 10th July.

Cathedral visit

As part of the year 6 leaver's celebration, year 6 from across Lancashire schools are invited to Blackburn Cathedral on Tuesday 9th July for a morning service.

Worship

Our worship on Thursday 11th July will be in church. All children will have the opportunity to participate in a Holy Communion service where children will receive a blessing or communion if confirmed. Please can all children come straight to St John's church and
