

British Values

Democracy

We have a say in what happens in our school.

We vote for who represents us on the school council.

We help develop school policies including those on behaviour, reading and homework and the aims of our school.

We help to decide which charities we would like to raise money for.

The Rule of Law

We help to develop fair rules for our class and school.

Our school rules and expectations are clear, fair and regularly promoted in assemblies and collective worship.

We encourage respect for the law and have regular visits from the Police, Fire Service, Ambulance Service and Road Safety Team to help reinforce this message.

Individual Liberty

We can make our own choices in school.

We know everyone has rights and responsibilities.

We know we need to work within boundaries to make safe choices.

We know, understand and exercise our rights and personal freedoms safely.

Mutual Respect

We view mutual respect as a fundamental value which underpins the whole work of our school community.

We treat other people with respect.

We work together to help one another.

We learn how our behaviours have an effect on their own rights and the rights of others.

Tolerance of those of different Faiths and Beliefs

We enjoy learning about different faiths and cultures from around the world.

We promote diversity through celebrations of different faiths and cultures.

We understand that prejudice can lead to hate and how important it is to overcome prejudices.

We have Sports Ambassadors who are elected by their class members. The Sports Ambassadors say which extra-curricular clubs we would like and the purchase PE equipment.

We voted on a reward system and then designed our own reward badges.

We consulted with staff and pupils and all approved our school's Marking and Feedback policy.

We understand how laws in parliament are made.

We understand the importance in having laws, and know that they protect us and influence our behaviour.

We understand that breaking laws and rules has consequences.

We are helped to distinguish right from wrong in the classroom, the playground and when out on visits.

Our teachers stress the importance of esafety whilst allowing us freedom to use new technologies .

We have the freedom to make choices about joining extra-curricular clubs.

We have the freedom to make choices about what to present in class assemblies.

We have the freedom to make choices about choosing the level of challenge in some lessons.

We work hard to maintain a positive, caring classroom environment.

We make all visitors feel very welcome in our school.

We have opportunities to express our thoughts and views in a safe environment.

As a worshipping Catholic community we believe each person is unique and should be respected and valued equally regardless of ability, gender, faith, heritage or race.

We enjoy visiting and learning about places of worship from different faiths .

We know that we are part of a culturally diverse society and have opportunities to experience different cultures.

Members of different faiths are welcome in our school and are encouraged to share their knowledge with us.

We use opportunities, such as The Olympics and The World Cup to learn about different cultures.
