

Year 5 Think and Write

Autumn

twinkl

Think and Write:

Starting Back at School

Click to view image full screen

Use this photograph as your inspiration to think and write. Make sure that your writing:

Sentence 1 has a fronted adverbial;

Sentence 2 includes a subordinate clause;

Sentence 3 has a proper noun;

Sentence 4 has a coordinating conjunction;

Sentence 5 includes a preposition.

Read through your passage carefully – does it include everything we are looking for?

Back

Example Answers

Starting Back at School

Here's an example of what you could have thought and written...

fronted adverbial

subordinate clause

Tomorrow, my friends and I will be going back to school. Before we even proper noun

adjective

enter the classroom, Mrs Granger will come and greet us with a warm and

adjective

coordinating conjunction welcoming smile. I am excited about starting the new year but I hope that the work will not be too difficult!

Think and Write:

Walking through Fallen Leaves

Click to view image full screen

Use this photograph as your inspiration to think and write. Make sure that your writing:

- Sentence 1 is written in the past tense;
- Sentence 2 has a relative clause;
- Sentence 3 includes a possessive apostrophe;
- Sentence 4 has a metaphor;
- Sentence 5 contains a preposition.

Read through your passage carefully – does it include everything we are looking for?

Back

Example Answers

Walking through Fallen Leaves

Here's an example of what you could have thought and written...

relative clause

Sam and Ben, who have been the best of friends since they were only two

past tense metaphor

possessive apostrophe years old, stomped through the blanket of crispy leaves. Ben's dog, Molly, preposition

barked with excitement and kept burrowing underneath large piles of leaves.

Think and Write: Harvest Festival

Click to view image full screen

Use this photograph as your inspiration to think and write. Make sure that your writing:

- Sentence 1 has a statement;
- Sentence 2 includes a subordinating conjunction;
- Sentence 3 contains the present progressive tense;
- Sentence 4 includes a modal verb;
- Sentence 5 has an apostrophe of omission.

Read through your passage carefully – does it include everything we are looking for?

Back

Example Answers

Harvest Festival

Here's an example of what you could have thought and written...

subordinating conjunction

Harvest time is fantastic! I love it because the food is so varied and statement

delicious. I am particularly looking forward to making carrot and present progressive text courgette soup and leek and potato stew. The farmer is busy digging

modal verb

apostrophe of omission

everything up and he should be proud of everything that he does. It isn't easy after all.

Think and Write: Fireworks Night

Click to view image full screen

Use this photograph as your inspiration to think and write. Make sure that your writing:

- Sentence 1 has a dash;
- Sentence 2 contains a fronted adverbial;
- Sentence 3 includes a simile;
- Sentence 4 has an expanded noun phrase;
- Sentence 5 has a possessive pronoun.

Read through your passage carefully – does it include everything we are looking for?

Back

Example Answers

Fireworks Night

Here's an example of what you could have thought and written...

dash

fronted adverbial

It was Fireworks Night – the sky was dark and full of stars. From my room, simile

I waited expectantly like a child on Christmas Eve. The first firework expanded noun phrase

exploded noisily and bright, luminous colours sprayed into the cold air.

Later, a roaring rocket rapidly zoomed into the sky. That one was definitely possessive noun

my favourite!

Think and Write: Halloween

Click to view image full screen

Use this photograph as your inspiration to think and write. Make sure that your writing:

Sentence 1 includes direct speech punctuation;

Sentence 2 includes parenthesis;

Sentence 3 contains an adjectival phrase;

Sentence 4 has personification;

Sentence 5 includes a semi-colon.

Read through your passage carefully – does it include everything we are looking for?

Back

Example Answers

Halloween

Here's an example of what you could have thought and written...

direct speech

parenthesis

"I'm scared," whimpered Tilda as she and George (her best friend) clung to each other. They were standing in an eerie graveyard which was dark and ominous. The trees whispered to them and the moon stared down menacingly. In an instant, a figure appeared before them; it was terrifying.

"Run," bellowed George and he and Tilda sprinted towards home.

personification

personification

adjectival phrase

semi-colon

Think and Write: Coughs and Colds

Click to view image full screen

Use this photograph as your inspiration to think and write. Use the following pattern of sentences:

- Sentence 1 includes a subordinate clause;
- Sentence 2 has a simile;
- Sentence 3 contains a modal verb;
- Sentence 4 has a command;
- Sentence 5 includes an apostrophe of omission.

Read through your passage carefully – does it include everything we are looking for?

Back

Example Answers

Coughs and Colds

Here's an example of what you could have thought and written...

subordinate clause

As the weather begins to change, many people suffer from more coughs and colds in the autumn. Your body starts to ache, your nose runs and

simile

your throat feels like sandpaper from constantly coughing. If you begin to

modal verb

feel unwell, you should keep hydrated, get plenty of rest and eat healthy command

food full of vitamin C. Remember, always cough and sneeze into a tissue

Apostrophe of omission or hanky. Don't forget to throw the tissue away and to wash your hands afterwards.

twinkl