

From the Headteachers

Gymrun

KS2 children are delighted that their Gymrun badges have arrived and thank you to all the children who have bought one; it is lovely to see them sewn onto their PE tops. Children who have yet to purchase their badge can bring £2 to their class teacher and they will be given one.

Denominational Inspection

Yesterday we received news that on Monday 13th March Corpus Christi School will have a denominational inspection. This is a statutory inspection which all Catholic schools must have. Each child received a letter yesterday explaining this inspection and a questionnaire, the inspectors would like to hear from our parents and your views are very important. Thank you to all our parents who have returned their completed questionnaires to school today. If you yet to do so you will still have the opportunity on Monday morning to bring it to the school office where a posting box is available. Once the inspection is completed, we will receive a report on the inspectors' findings which we will share with our parents in the coming weeks.
