From the Headteachers

Steve McQueen Year 3

Last academic year the children in Year 3 took part an art project organised by the Tate Britain and the artist Steve McQueen. This exhibition has just opened in the gallery. The children in Year 4 will be visiting to see their photographs in the New Year. In the meantime if you or your family are visiting the Tate Britain the Corpus Christi children are in exhibition area number 23.

Christmas Carol Singing

The school choir will be singing carols at Sainsbury's Tulse Hill from 3.45 pm today, then onto Brixton to sing at the Department store and Morley's. The Corpus Christi School Band will also be playing tomorrow from 12.30pm tomorrow (Saturday) in the Nursery Playground. We thank Miss Kriechbaum and Miss Brown for all their preparations towards this event and we hope to see as many as possible of you at these events to support the children and the school.

Parking

We thank parents for being considerate when parking at drop off and pick up. The yellow zig zag lines must not be parked on, which is clearly marked on the road. School signs also indicate where parking should not take place, as we need to ensure children can see the road clearly so that they are able to cross roads safely. Also please avoid doing '3 points turns' in the road as it often causes congestion and can be a danger to the children at an already busy time. It is much safer to all if you drive around the block. Thanks again for all your support and co-operation.
