

Communications and WhatsApp Groups

A reminder that if you are unsure about the timings of events in school please refer to the school website where you will find a dates of events happening in school along with the times. Our weekly newsletters also lists important dates for the term. Class assemblies always commence at 9am, therefore if you have dropped your child to school by 08:50am please make your way to the main hall to avoid being late and joining the assembly after it has started. Please do not share incorrect information on parent WhatsApp groups.

Corpus Christi Day of Celebration Friday 20th June

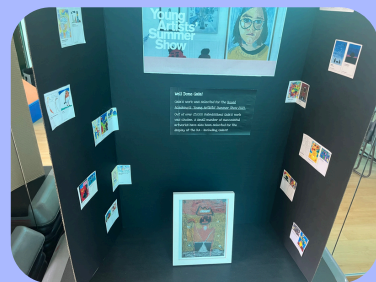

Next Friday, 20th June we will be celebrating Corpus Christi Day.

We have been fortunate to be able to return to St Martin's-in-the Field School in Tulse Hill and Year 1 - 6 will enjoy a day there and a picnic lunch.

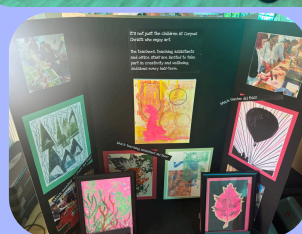

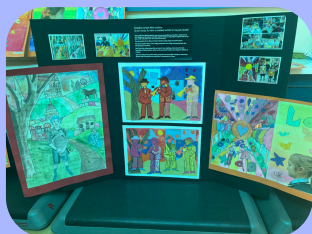

Children in Nursery and Reception will celebrate in Corpus Christi School, Trent Road. Please see the letter from our Co Headteachers giving more information and important details for the day.

Summer Art Exhibition

Today we have celebrated a year of the children's art work from across the school with a lovely exhibition in the Upper Hall, we hope you had the opportunity to visit and see the children's work. The exhibition will be open tomorrow, Saturday 14th June, so please do pop along whilst you are at the Parish Fair. We would like to thank Ms Buglione for all her work in organising this exhibition and promoting art in school. We would also like to thank Mrs Godfrey, our resident artist, who has assisted across the school this year in the enrichment of art.

Mufti Day today, but the Reception staff decided it was target practice day, if you see them please return them to school!!
