

Year 5 Retreat

Our Y5 Chaplains enjoyed a wonderful retreat today at St. Mary's Catholic Church in Clapham. They joined chaplains from other local Catholic primary schools and spent the day sharing ideas and collaborating on themes inspired by Catholic Social Teaching.

We were blessed to end the retreat with a beautiful Mass led by Fr. Morris, and our Chaplains were especially proud to wear their new badges for the first time.

This morning, Class 7 performed their class assembly. They shared their learning in English about the story Black Dog by Levi Pinfold by performing a re-enactment of the story. They also shared their learning in curriculum about rivers and bridges, and in science about food groups. Class 7 performed the song 'When I Grow Up' from Matilda, which was sung beautifully. Class 7 would like to thank all their family and friends who were able to attend their class assembly for their ongoing support.
