

CORPUS CHRISTI CATHOLIC SCHOOL

FROM THE CO-HEADTEACHERS

Friday 20th June 2025

ISSUE 35

Well done to our football team last Saturday beating Rosendale School 2-1 in the semi-final of the Magazine Cup. A very strong performance from both sides but delighted that we are now heading to the final this Saturday against Henry Cavendish School, 10am kick off at Rosendale Road Playing Fields. All welcome to come along and support and we wish the boys all the very best.

Corpus Christi Celebration Day

Today the children from Years 1-6 came together at St Martin's and EYFS at Trent Road to celebrate our Feast Day. They enjoyed play and games in the sunshine and lunch together. They rounded off the day cooling down with ice lollies.

The Royal Academy of Music

Reception children will be visiting The Royal Academy of Music on Monday 23rd June. This will bring to an end this year's collaboration with the Royal Academy introducing the children to tuition in learning violins and cellos. We are delighted that this programme of learning will continue in school with the children as they move into Year 1. Children currently in Year 1 will continue their learning as well as they move up the school. We thank our donors who have helped the school to subsidise this programme so that we can enhance the children's musical learning; this is a partnership with them and we thank parents who have made their timely payments towards The Community First Strings Experience.

Legoland

This week Years 3 and 4 had a wonderful and exciting day at Legoland on Wednesday. We thank all the parent volunteers who gave their time and joined us on the day as without your help, these trips cannot take place. Please take a look at the Instagram pages for a selection of great photographs.

Nursery and Wild Science

Nursery children had a wild time this week with a visit from Wild Science. They saw lots of fascinating animals that they were able to touch and hold. Well done nursery children for being so brave!
