Parents Evening

Thank you to all parents who have attended parents evening appointments during the last two weeks. We hope you have enjoyed celebrating all your children have achieved, during the Autumn Term and are up to date with your child's next step targets and how you can support your children at home.

Christmas Nativities

We look forward to starting the final week of term with four wonderful nativity performances.

Acorn Class will be performing 'Busy, Busy Bethlehem' on:

Monday 15th December at 9:15am and Tuesday 16th December at 2:30pm

Meanwhile, Elm and Oak Classes are looking forward to presenting 'The Twinkly Nativity' on:

Monday 15th December at 2:30pm and Tuesday 16th December at 9:15am

Thank you to all those who have purchased seats for these performances. As always, requests for seats has been extremely high, with all performances being 'sold out' and we thank you for your understanding that, for health and safety reasons, we must limit the number of seats available.

Members of staff will have lists of the seats purchased and will tick our lovely audience members on the seat list as you arrive. Please note that younger siblings, aged between one and four, must have a purchased seat and cannot sit on adult knees. Thank you.

Our dress rehearsals have taken place today and our children are fully prepared, ready to spread Christmas joy and bring festive smiles to everyone's faces.

Thank you to our staff for preparing the children to perform so well in their nativities and to parents for their support with costumes and with learning words, songs and actions.
