Reading Lessons	 The cover of the book 'Wild Boy' by Lloyd Jones. It features a young boy with wild, curly hair and a red shirt, looking intense. The title 'WILD BOY' is in large, bold, red letters. Below the title, there are several lines of text, including 'THE WILD BOY WHO RIPPED HIS TONGUE OUT' and 'MURDEROUS'. The author's name 'LLOYD JONES' is at the bottom.
English (Writing)	 The cover of the book 'The Invisible' by R.C. Sherriff. It shows a young boy wearing a blue and white striped beanie and a green jacket, standing in a snowy, urban environment. The title 'The INVISIBLE' is written in large, white, block letters. Below the image, the text 'Persuasive texts' is written in bold black font.
Wider Curriculum Texts	 The cover of the book 'Early Islamic Civilisation' by Explains. It features a colorful illustration of a mosque with a large dome and minarets, set against a blue sky with a crescent moon. The title 'EARLY Islamic CIVILISATION' is written in a stylized, colorful font. The word 'EXPLAINS' is at the top.
Reading for Pleasure	 Two book covers are shown side-by-side. On the left is 'Roofpoppers' by Katherine Rundell, featuring a cityscape at night with a person on a roof. On the right is 'Street Child' by Berlie Doherty, featuring a young boy in a brown jacket and hat running through a city street.
