

Curriculum Summary - English Language (Year 11)

Autumn	Spring	Summer
Paper 1– Practice Reading & Writing Students will complete practice exam papers, read 20th century prose and develop their confidence with timed practice. They will build their confidence in crafting well-structured responses, with clear teacher input. Students will have a chance to improve a creative writing piece based on a memory of their choice, adapting it effectively for the exam question. Paper 2 - Practice Reading & Writing Students will revisit the skills required to read and understand non-fiction texts, developing their confidence with timed practice. They will build their confidence in crafting well-structured responses, with clear teacher input. Students will improve their transactional writing skills, by practising responses to the range of non-fiction writing types in timed situations.	Paper 1– Practice Reading & Writing Students will complete practice exam papers reading 20th century prose, developing their confidence with timed practice. They will embed their confidence in crafting well-structured responses, beginning to work independently. Students will have a chance to improve a creative writing piece based on a memory of their choice, adapting it effectively for the exam question. Paper 2 - Practice Reading & Writing Students will revisit the skills required to read and understand non-fiction texts, developing their confidence with timed practice. They will embed their confidence in crafting well-structured responses, beginning to work independently. Students will improve their transactional writing skills, by practising responses to the range of non-fiction writing types in timed situations.	Paper 1– Practice Reading & Writing Students will complete practice exam papers reading 20th century prose, developing their confidence with timed practice. They will fully embed their confidence with crafting well-structured, independent, responses. Students will have a chance to improve a creative writing piece based on a memory of their choice, adapting it effectively for the exam question. Paper 2 - Practice Reading & Writing Students will revisit the skills required to read and understand non-fiction texts, developing their confidence with timed practice. They will fully embed their confidence with crafting well-structured, independent, responses, with clear teacher input. Students will improve their transactional writing skills, by practising responses to the range of non-fiction writing types in timed situations.