Governor: Mr Pilling

1. Miss Clough welcomed the children and the register was taken. Miss Clough introduced, herself, Miss Sharp and Miss Mclaughlin. Miss Clough introduced Mr Pilling and he explained his role. EP said that he knows Mr Pilling because he is their class governor. The children then introduced themselves to the group.
2. JC explained the British Values, EP asked to read them out, and Miss Clough asked the children what they think the school council does.
EP said 'make choices, do fun stuff.' JS agreed and said he wished he did the car wash. LH said 'we are trusted more'.
Miss Clough explained that we will have regular meetings and that the children are welcome to give their opinions and that these are listened to by people such as Mrs Halligan and Mr Pilling. Mr Pilling explained that the children need to be able to pass on some information to their friends as they are representing their classes. Miss Clough said to the children that their role is important and that they must act as positive role models in school.
3. The Kings Coronation- Miss Clough explained that we will be celebrating the Kings Coronation by enjoying an afternoon tea party on Friday afternoon. LH said that he helped prepare for this and enjoyed going to Tesco to collect the decorations. Miss Clough said that all the children can enjoy a cake and a hot drink tomorrow, EP said what about KF because he's Vegan, Miss Clough said we are an inclusive school which means everyone is included and said that Miss Claxton will ensure we get vegan cake too. Miss Clough said that she will take the colouring sheets to Tesco to enter the 'coronation' colouring competition and hoped there would be some winners from Cribden. Miss Sharp suggested making some paper crowns, Miss Clough said that classes can celebrate with class-based activities.
4. Miss Clough explained that the children will be positive role models now and that their pictures will be on the school website, the wall boards around school and asked if anyone was brave enough to come to the front in assembly. HA said 'I think I am ready'. HL said 'I will, I am brave.' RR said he would love to. Miss Clough will introduce the councillors in assembly tomorrow.
