Absent:

Staff: JC, CS, CM

Governor: Mr Pilling

1. Register taken and children welcomed.
2. Miss Clough thanked the children for being excellent light monitors, it has been noticed that less lights are being left on. LC smiled and said your welcome.
3. The children love the wall board in the main hall and will thank Miss Mclaughlin, Mr PB, Miss Talbot and all of Art club for all of their efforts.
4. The Children all said they loved the Tesco trip. LC asked if we can go on another trip. CT asked if we could go litter picking in the park. Miss Clough said we can look at doing one at the end of term again. Miss Clough re sent the list of what can go in the soft plastics as requested from Miss Bibby. Please can you all check your classrooms for any yellow soft plastic bags, and if you have ran out to let Miss Clough know.
5. Thursday 2nd March - World Book Day. Plans to be confirmed by Mr Robinson and Mr Kelleher.
6. Red Nose Day is on the Friday 17th March 2023 this year. The theme this year is 'all about coming together, spreading joy, and having the best day ever in your school.' Comic Relief is able to support amazing projects and organisations who are making a difference for people across the UK and around the world. I have been posted an activity pack including stickers and some posters that I have popped in each staff room.
The School Council have decided that we will do a
 - car wash
 - bake sale
 - design a red nose competition
 - Stick the red nose on Mr Nosey.

The bake sale will take place in the dining hall in the morning- timetable to follow.

Staff- Please let me know if you would like your car washing, I will ask you to park outside of the stables from 1pm and we will be charging £5 per car. ALL of the children in the school council want to be part of the car washing so we will do this as one group.

Mr Pilling will judge the winner of the Red Nose Comp, there will be one winner from each building, template to follow.

To Action-

Miss Sharp, Miss Mclaughlin and Miss Clough - to prepare for red nose day- meeting to follow.

Next Meeting Thursday 9th March 2023 09.30am- 09.45am

Thank you,

Miss Clough and the School Council.
