Window

Windows are for looking out onto the world and becoming aware of its wonders, both the 'wows' and 'ows'; things that are 'awe-full' and make us wonder and be grateful and things that are 'awful' and make us wonder and ask questions. The whole curriculum and life itself are full of opportunities to recognise this sensitively.

Mirror

Mirrors are for looking into and reflecting, alone and together, to see things more clearly, for thinking and asking important questions and learning from our own and each other's responses. In schools we must allow time for this for individual and group reflection and sharing of perspectives. Some subjects and times allow for this specifically, such as religious education and collective worship but in all subjects, there will be opportunities, unexpected or planned, when things just 'crop up'. Handled sensitively, it is possible to make the most of all these times.

Door

Doors are for looking through in order to then act or express this in some way in response; for moving on, making choices, and doing something creative, active and purposeful in response. This can simply be done through a change in attitude or behaviour or thinking. It can also be expressed powerfully through music or art or drama or dance and through some form of social action or specific acts of giving.

Overcoming Fear

1 John 4:18

There is no fear in love;
perfect love drives out all fear.

let us pray.

Loving

God,

Our

adventurous

creator,

give

us scourage to choose

the

path

before

us,

risking

disappointment

to find

joy,

risking

failure

to be creative,

risking

rejection

so that we

might

love,

risking

stumbling so

might

climb,

journey

for the sake of the homecoming.

We

ask

in

name

of Jesus,

who

risked

dying

for

of

us.

Amen

Let

sing

God's
