Spirituality

Window

Mirror

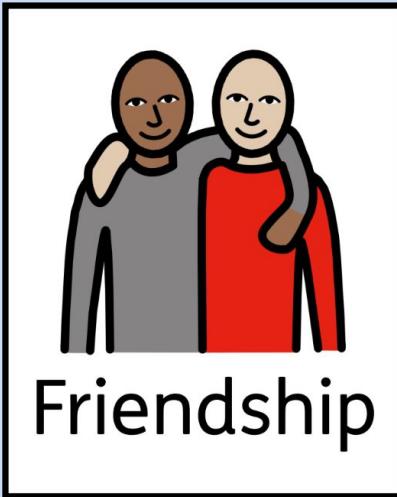

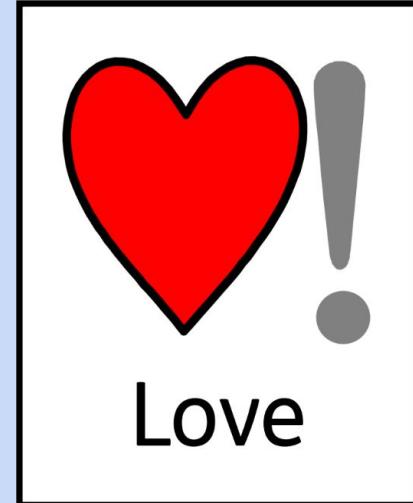

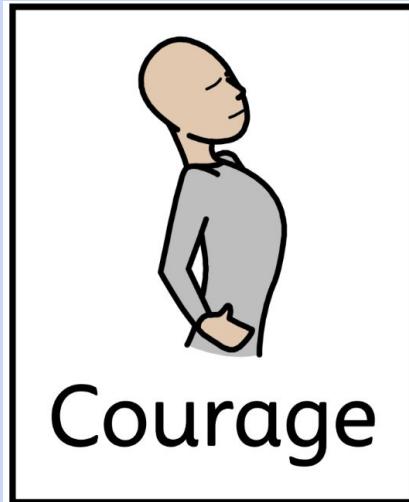

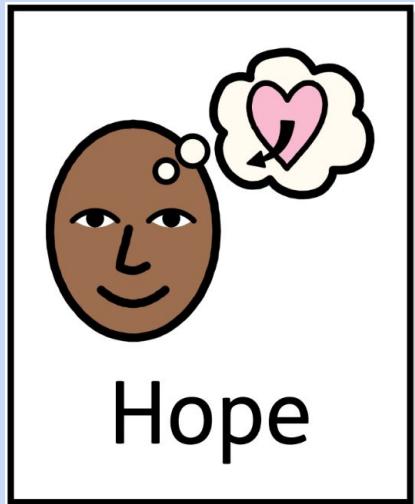

Door

Windows are for looking out onto the world and becoming aware of its wonders, both the 'wows' and 'ow's'; things that are 'awe-full' and make us wonder and be grateful and things that are 'awful' and make us wonder and ask questions. The whole curriculum and life itself are full of opportunities to recognise this sensitively.

Mirrors are for looking into and reflecting, alone and together, to see things more clearly, for thinking and asking important questions and learning from our own and each other's responses. In schools we must allow time for this for individual and group reflection and sharing of perspectives. Some subjects and times allow for this specifically, such as religious education and collective worship but in all subjects, there will be opportunities, unexpected or planned, when things just 'crop up'. Handled sensitively, it is possible to make the most of all these times.

Doors are for looking through in order to then act or express this in some way in response; for moving on, making choices, and doing something creative, active and purposeful in response. This can simply be done through a change in attitude or behaviour or thinking. It can also be expressed powerfully through music or art or drama or dance and through some form of social action or specific acts of giving.

Why do you think that?

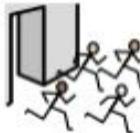

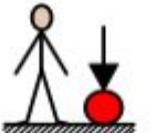

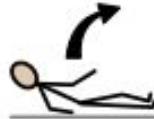

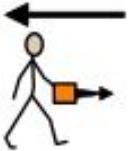

The Flight to Egypt by James Tissot

 An Angel of the Lord appeared in a dream to Joseph and said, King Herod will be looking for the child in order to kill him. So  get up, take  and his  mother and escape to Egypt.  Stay there until I tell you to leave.

 J   took the child and his mother, and left

Joseph got up, took the child and his mother, and left for  Egypt, where  he  stayed until  Herod

during the night for Egypt, where he stayed until Herod died.

Mirror

Being a refugee isn't just something that happened in the past. Many people today have had to leave their country because of war or because it isn't safe for them. Half of the world's refugees are children. Many live in camps together where times are tough.

Reflection

time

Look at this rucksack. Let's imagine that you're going on a trip and you can only take items that fit in this bag. What would you pack?

Reflection

time

What would you need to leave behind either because you can't carry it or because you don't need it to live?

Tell the person you are sitting next to how you might offer a warm welcome to new people who have joined our school so they won't ever feel lonely or isolated.

let us pray.

A Prayer for Refugees

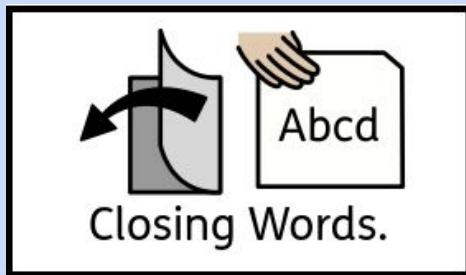

Loving God,

whose son became a refugee and had no place to call his own.
Look with mercy on those who are fleeing from danger,
who are homeless and hungry.

Bless those who work to bring them relief, inspire generosity and compassion in all our hearts and guide the nations of the world towards the day when there will be justice and peace for everyone.

Amen.
