let us pray.

Sometimes the Bible uses pictures or metaphors to help us understand things. Just like the clothes of compassion and kindness in Colossians chapter 3, there is a robe of righteousness in the Old Testament. A man called Isaiah thanks God for giving him a robe of righteousness to wear. It's as though God gives us his royal clothes. Only he is truly right and good, we will always do things wrong. But Jesus makes it possible to put on His royal robe and be seen as pure and good like him in God's eyes.

“Thank you Jesus that you make it possible to for me to put on a robe of righteousness. We have just celebrated Easter, and remembered when you took all our sin on yourself. It was as though you took our dirty, messy clothes and gave us special, royal, beautiful clothes instead. You are so kind and generous. Help us to be grateful for your goodness to us. Amen.”

May the  grace of  our  Lord,  Jesus Christ and the  love of  God  our  Father

 and the fellowship of the  Holy Spirit

be with  us  all,  forever  more.

Amen.

let us pray.

Thank you for
