

Topic: Islam

Key Question: Why is the Qur'an important to Muslims?

Autumn 1 Year 5

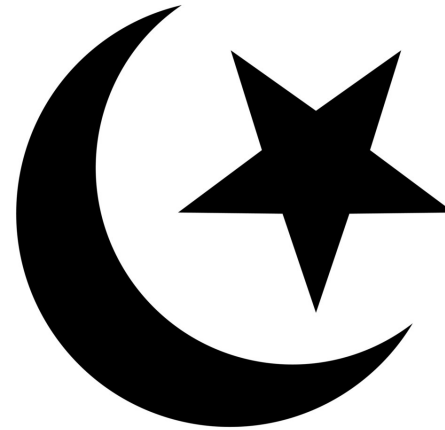

The Qur'an must be treated, at all times, with a great deal of respect.

When reading the Qur'an, a stand is commonly used to avoid unnecessary touching and avoid it touching the floor.

There are some rules you must follow when reading a Qur'an:
Wash before touching it
Dress appropriately
Always treat it with respect

Respect

Vocabulary you will know...

Revelation	A previously unknown fact that has been shared with others.
Messenger	A person who is chosen to carry a message.
Prophet	A religious person regarded as a teacher of the way of God.

Vocabulary you will hear...

Authority, guidance

For Muslims, the Qur'an is the direct word of God as revealed to the Prophet Muhammad (pbuh).

This is the Holy Book for Islam.

Muslims will study the Qur'an to learn all they can.

Qur'an

It is written and read in Arabic.

The Qur'an is a source of guidance and authority for all Muslims.

The Qur'an was revealed to Prophet Muhammad (pbuh) on the Night of Power.

It is remembered on the 27th day.

The Night of Power is celebrated during Ramadan.

It is believed to be the holiest night of the year.

The Night of Power

It is also known as the festival of Laylat al Qadr.

Muslims celebrate by attending the mosque, praying and studying the Qur'an.

