

Year One Key Question: What do people say about God?

Focus Question: How might beliefs about creation affect the way people treat the world?

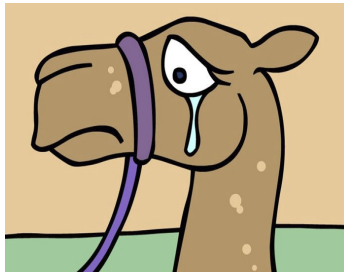

Spring Term 1: Year 1

The Crying Camel

The Prophet was walking on a hot day and heard a poor camel crying. It was tied to a tree.

The camel's owner was resting nearby.

The Prophet told the man that the camel was part of Allah's world so it is our duty to care for all animals.

The Prophet and the Ants

After collecting food, the ants were on the way back to the nest.

Some people built a fire close to the nest that was blowing smoke into the nest.

The people heard a voice telling them they had built their fire too close and it would burn the ants.

The Prophet told them that no matter how small or big all animals are important and should be looked after.

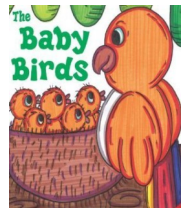

The Baby Birds

They saw some birds trying to fly. One of the birds was falling and one of the men caught it.

The Prophet and his friends were having some rest under a tree. They were admiring all of the animals.

The mother bird swooped down because the little bird was really scared in the man's hand.

The man let the bird go and the Prophet reminded all his friends that we should all be careful not to harm any living thing.

Creation

In Islam, people believe in one God and call him Allah.

In Islam, people believe that Allah created the world.

Environmental Issues

In Islam, people believe that caring for the planet is a very important part of their religion.

We looked at a good world and how we can help to look after it.

We talked about what is happening to the world and the bad things that are happening.
