Puzzle 1 Being Me in My World		I can tell you some things that make my class a safe and fair place. I can say how I feel about my class and why I like it being safe and fair.	I can explain why my behaviour can impact on other people in my class.  I can compare my own and my friends' choices and can express why some choices are better than others.	I can justify the choices I make to help keep my class and school a safe and fair place.  I can give evidence as to why my own and my friends' choices can be helpful/unhelpful and how some of these choices may have positive/negative consequences.
Puzzle 2 Celebrating Difference		I can name some differences and similarities between me and other people in my class. I can give a reason why a friend is special to me.	I can explain that sometimes people get bullied because they are seen to be different. This might include people who do not conform to gender stereotypes.  I can explain how it feels to have a friend and be a friend. I can also explain why it is ok to be different from my friends.	I can justify why gender stereotypes are not always fair. I can also explain why differences can make some people bully other people.  I can offer strategies that allow me to stand up for myself and my friends.
Puzzle 3 Dreams & Goals		I can tell you what I did to help my group create an end product. I can say how I felt about working in a group.	I can explain how I played my part in a group and the parts other people played to create an end product. I can explain how our skills complimented each other.  I can explain how it felt to be part of a group and can identify a range of feelings about group work.	I can analyse the different roles people played in a group to create an end product and justify what was helpful and what wasn't.  I can identify a range of feelings about working in a group. I can analyse my feelings and those of others and can explain how we could improve our group skills next time.

Puzzle 4 Healthy Me		I can tell you some things I can put in or on my body to keep it healthy. I can say how I feel about being healthy.	I can explain why foods and medicines are good for my body comparing my ideas with less healthy/ unsafe choices.  I can compare my own and my friends' choices and can express how it feels to make healthy and safe choices.	I can justify my choices about food and medicines and explain healthy and safe ways in which they are good for my body.  I can give evidence as to why my own and my friends' choices are healthy / less healthy. I can also evaluate how it feels to make healthy and less healthy choices.
Puzzle 5 Relationships		When talking about my relationships with others I can tell you some of the things that might make me feel comfortable and some things that might make me feel uncomfortable.  I can tell you ways that might help me to solve problems in my relationships. This might be asking for help or using a problem-solving technique.	I can explain why some things might make me feel uncomfortable in a relationship and compare this with relationships that make me feel safe and special.  I can give examples of some different problem-solving techniques and explain how I might use them in certain situations in my relationships.	I can justify how and why some things might make me feel comfortable or uncomfortable in relationships.  I can appraise how effective different problem-solving solutions might be when solving problems in my relationships.
Puzzle 6 Changing Me		I can tell you how I am different now to when I was a baby and say some of the changes that will happen to me as I get older. I can use the correct names for penis, testicles, anus, vagina, vulva, and give reasons why they are private.  I can tell you something that I like/dislike about being a boy/girl and something that I like/ dislike about getting older.	I can use the correct terms to describe penis, testicles, anus, vagina, vulva and explain why they are private. I can explain why some types of touches feel OK and others don't.  I can tell you what I like and don't like about being a boy/girl and getting older, and recognise that other people might feel differently to me.	I can explain about various ways that boys and girls are different, both physically (using the correct terms) and in personality and behaviour; I can talk about the physical differences with respect and understand how to protect my own and others' privacy.  I can explain how I feel about being a boy/girl and getting older and talk about the feelings I have about it. I can explain why other people may feel differently to me and give some examples.
