This week Deacon and Yousuf (Y4) had a wonderful time gardening and exploring a variety of insects, showing great curiosity and enthusiasm while learning about nature.

Today, four children from our choir attended a 'Mini Sing' at Mere Hall to prepare for next month's Bolton Music Festival.

The GoodGym Charity exists to support people to combine getting fit with doing good.

Thank you to all the volunteers from GoodGym who began helping us strip out our annexe building this week ready for full demolition.

Today, some of our year 5 children took part in a football skills/tournament at Moss Bank FC, they showed great determination and resilience and represented the school exceptionally well.

Thank you to everyone who supported year 3's Enterprise Event, you managed to raise £257 to support our children. Y3G performed a wonderful medley of 80's songs and wowed their audience with their ukulele playing. Y3A have enjoyed selling their popocious popcorn throughout the week.

 YRHS For your exceptional effort during 'tidy up time' and for always following our classroom rules.
 Y1L For writing an amazing and thoughtful sequence of writing about Mary Seacole. Keep up the hard work.
 Y1HBD For always being such a bright, shining star in the classroom and always applying herself to her learning. Well done, Zaynab! Keep up the great work!
 Y2F For your brilliant work in maths this week, telling the time at 5 minute intervals. You have tried really hard, giving 100% effort and explained your answers well during the lesson inputs. Amazing!
 Y3A For wonderful English work. Emily always tries her hardest to produce neat, exciting sentences using expanded noun phrases. She is friendly in class and has excellent manners.
 Y3G For being an excellent performer in our show. He is a brilliant ukulele player and has a lovely singing voice.
 Y4S For showing brilliant effort all term and making excellent progress in all subjects.
 Y4AT For an improved attitude to her learning. Well done, Whitney!
 Y5H For having an absolutely brilliant attitude this week! Mya you have been polite, calm and hard-working. Not only this, but you have gone above and beyond in most areas of your learning—even achieving your high score in arithmetic. I'm really proud of you, Mya!
 Y5C For having a much improved attitude in class. The effort you have put in this week to be quiet and ready quickly has been tremendous! Keep it up!
 Y6B For overcoming nerves and displaying improved confidence and contribution during our Shakespeare rehearsals.
 Y6P For sharing some great ideas during our exploration of Shakespeare and demonstrating some excellent acting skills. |
